

CATTLE - Competition open to Ohio

READ SPECIAL RULES FOR ENTRY

See entry blank for closing date.

All animals must be in place by 8 p.m., Saturday before fair, except as otherwise stated.

RULES:

1. The base dates in determining the class in which animals should be shown are as stated in class listing. A heifer, under 24 months, in milk, must be entered in 2 year old cow class.,
2. To be eligible for competition, whether singly or in groups, animals must bona fide property of exhibitors, except where otherwise specified. The exhibitor, if requested by the superintendent of cattle must produce certificates of registration of transfer showing ownership. Animals must be tattooed when required by registry. In the classes for get of sire & produce of dam, the exhibitor, need not own animals.
3. The owner of the dam at the time of service shall be considered the breeder of the animal.
4. Firms & co-partnerships entering animals for competition must be in existence sixth days prior to the date of closing entries & in all cases must be bona fide & the management may require affidavits of the age of the firms. Firms & co-partnerships entered into for show purposes will not be recognized by the association, but cattle bred by a member of the firm or company shall be considered as bred by the company. Should temporary sale or transfer of a show animal be discovered, the exhibitor & proper owner may be barred from any & all future shows.
5. Every Female over twenty-four months old must have produced a living calf within twelve months or prove to be with calf. Every bull thirty-six months must have dropped to his service a calf within twelve months previous to opening dates of this show to be eligible to compete. A Free martin heifer shall be barred from showing until she has become of age as to have proven a breeder. No animal which is not exhibited & shown in single classes shall be permitted to show in groups.
6. Any Exhibitor making a false or misleading statement, exhibiting cattle that have been artificially fitted or treated, showing an animal out of the proper class, substituting one animal for another without proper correction of records at the cattle superintendent's office before entering the ring or for any other dishonorable practice, shall forfeit all premiums. If payment to exhibitors have been made before the evidence is given that such violations have occurred, the exhibitors must refund the premium money so forfeited to the Richland County Fair Board of the State of Ohio or be barred from showing at the Richland County Fair in the future.
7. The judge may, at his option, require any cow to be milked white in the ring or before the awards are made.
8. All animals must be shown in their proper class & may only be shown in one class - except championship and group classes. '
9. Judges must not award a prize to any unworthy exhibit. It is the intention of the management that no premium or distinction of any kind shall be given any animal that is not deserving.
10. Get of shall consist of three animals of any age or sex the get of one sire, not more than one male. Beef cattle consists of four animals.
11. Production of dam shall consist of two animals of any age or sex, the produce of one cow.
12. Exhibitors must specify on entry blank the number of animals entered.
13. Purity of blood as established by pedigree, symmetry, size, early maturity & general characteristics of the several breeds of all animals to be considered. The judge will make proper allowance for age, feeding & other circumstances.
14. Each breed to be shown separately for champion.
15. Do not make entries in Championship classes.

